

Third International Meeting on Experimental and Behavioral Economics

Málaga (Spain), March 22-24, 2007.

The Department of Economics at the University of Málaga (www.economicas.uma.es), the Laboratory for Research in Experimental Economics at the University of Valencia (Lineex, <http://www.uv.es/lineex/>) and the Instituto de Análisis Económico (IAE, <http://www.iae.csic.es/>, a center of the Spanish Highest Council for Scientific Research, CSIC) jointly sponsor the Third International Meeting on Experimental and Behavioral Economics (IMEBE), organized by Jordi Brandts (IAE), Enrique Fatás (LINEEX and University of Valencia), Ana Lozano (University of Málaga) and Antonio J Morales (LINEEX and University of Málaga).

The meeting intends to bring together researchers in behavioral and experimental economics, as well as in related areas. A combination of invited and contributed papers will be chosen for the final program. There will also be a number of poster sessions.

The invited speakers are:

Prof. Martin Dufwenberg

Director of the Institute for Behavioral Economics
Karl and Stevie Eller Professor of Economics, University of Arizona

Prof. Armin Falk

Director of Bonn Lab for Experimental Economics
Research Director at the Institute for the Study of Labor (IZA)
Professor of Economics, University of Bonn

Prof. Francesco Guala

Senior Lecturer, University of Exeter

Prof. Steffen Huck

ESRC Centre for Economic Learning and Social Evolution
Professor of Economics, University College London

Prof. Antonio Rangel

Director of Caltech Neuroeconomics Laboratory
Associate Professor, California Institute of Technology

Proposals for contributed papers should be sent, in the form of an extended abstract or a full paper, to the organizers through the registration form at IMEBE-website <http://www.uv.es/lineex/imebe/>. Both theoretical and empirical papers on the topics of experimental and behavioral economics are encouraged. Interdisciplinary papers involving economics and psychology or sociology are also welcome. The deadline is January 31st. Authors will receive notification of acceptance by February 15th.

The conference venue is Malaga University's Vice-Chancellor's Office, Av Cervantes 2. The local organizing committee includes Miguel Angel Meléndez, Miguel Angel Durán and Javier Rodero.

There will be a moderate registration fee and additional information about the meeting will be posted on the IMEBE-webpage as it arises.

You can check the program of previous IMEBE editions at the website.